JUGHEAD No 16 FEBRUARY

FIRST PRIZE-$10.00
REPORTER
KIM BIGELOW
Ft. Myers, Florida

Dear Archie:

I want everyone to know about the killing of innocent dolphins. When the tuna fishermen bring in the nets many dolphins get caught in the nets too. The dolphins look for a hole in the net to escape but the fishermen won't let them out. They are being killed for no reason. I think we should write to the tuna fish companies in protest of the dolphin killings. If enough people speak up we can save the dolphins.

Dolphins are the smartest animals next to man. Dolphins have their own language and if they become extinct we'll never be able to study it, and they will be gone just like the dinosaurs.

SECOND PRIZE-$5.00
REPORTER
TIWANNA JACOBS
Maxton, N.C.

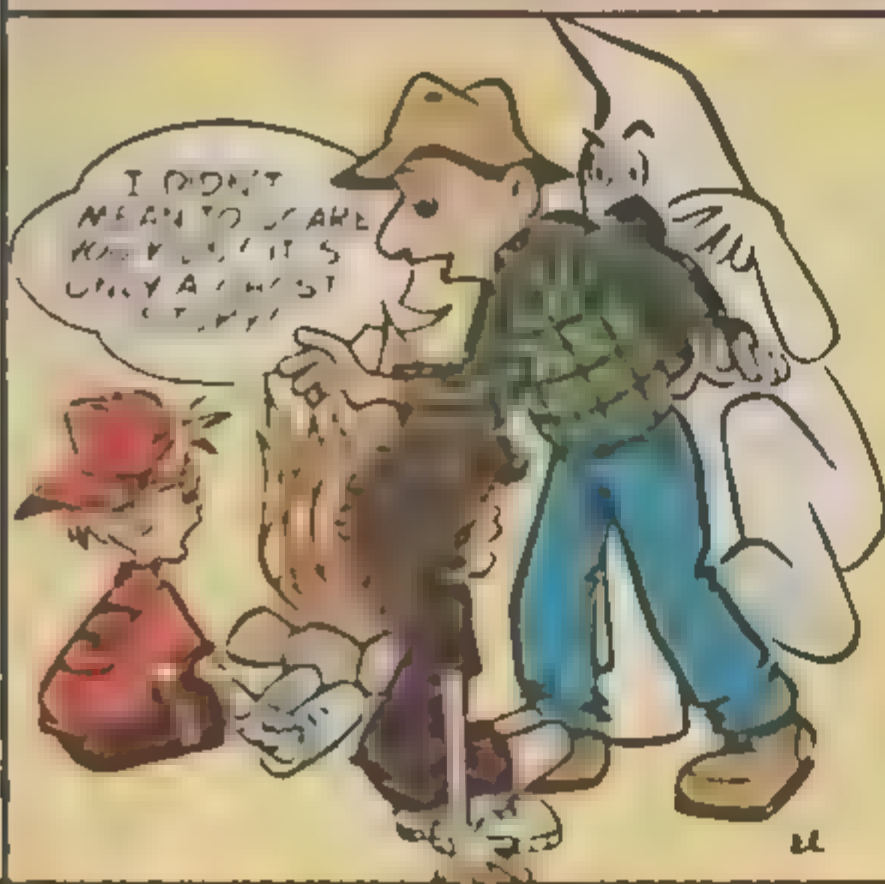

Dear Archie:

I went camping last summer. If anyone likes being outside they should go camping.

While I was there we studied plants, and trees. When we went outside after snacks, we studied rocks, and we turned them over and studied the different kinds of bugs under them.

The best part was when we all sat around the campfire. My group would sing songs, roast marshmallows and tell ghost stories. When you tell a ghost story around a campfire, it seems to come alive.

Editor's NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the hundreds of Archie fans who have written to me since I started this column. I have learned quite a lot, not only from you, but also from the many parents and teachers, that I might say I'm thrilled, took the time to share their thoughts and feelings about our comics. I have been passing along all this information to the writers, artists and the publishers, so that we'll be able to continue to publish the best and most entertaining comics in the world.

Speaking of "The World", did you know that Archie comics are published in seven different languages including, English, Spanish, French, Norwegian, Swedish, Hindi and Greek. If any of you have seen or bought any of our comics in another language, how about letting me know. It might be an excellent letter to publish in the Archie Club News, which appears in most of our 32 page issues. You could win a cash prize.

We have scheduled 3 new titles for 1990. They are, EXPLORERS OF THE UNKNOWN (thanks to your letters), JUGHEAD'S TIME POLICE, and JUGHEAD'S DINER. I'll let you know more about these titles in future "Editor's Notebooks".

Just a reminder, if you're in the New York City area, JANUARY 6 & 7, there will be a Great Eastern Comic Book Convention at the PENTA HOTEL, located at Seventh Avenue at West 33rd Street, across the street from Madison Square Garden and Penn Station. I'll be there along with some of your favorite Archie artists, including Dan DeCarlo and Stan Goldberg.

MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY CHANUKAH to all our readers and their families from everyone here at Archie Comics!
